In a world where there are more jobs than talent, employers need tools and insights to help them decode candidate drives, understand their needs, and consider how these play out in the workplace. Attracting and selecting the best people is critical to the success of every organization, and this workshop will prepare recruiters, talent acquisition professionals and hiring managers for the challenge.

This fast-paced workshop gives participants actionable skills and tools to help them utilize The Predictive Index Assessment insights during each phase of the hiring process. Sessions are led by management consultants with an average of 20 years' experience who are experts in the discipline, in an accessible, easy-to-digest format. Participants work through a diverse set of learning activities including personal reflection exercises, group discussions, and hands-on software practice.
